AN award-winning fish and chip business has opened in Crosby.

The Good Catch Fish and Chip Shop is now open for business, and has landed a haul of compliments on social media in its first few months of trading.

Chris Parry tweeted: "bad, bad idea - Just walked in to @TheGoodCatch to get a menu. I could now eat my own fist I'm so hungry!"

@Patruska2 tweeted @TheGoodCatch we visited yesterday. Lovely fresh fish & little one enjoyed the fish fingers. Great service & very clean. Thank you."

@iamgoat81 tweeted: "@TheGoodCatch quality

fish and chips last night from the new chippy in Crosby #atlas" And Crosby business @Tillymintcrosby tweeted: "I especially liked the handsome guys in caps!! #something-fortheladies Haha!"

The family owned business, founded in Liverpool during the 1960s, was one of three finalists in the National Fish and Chip Awards last month.

Chris Pittaras from The Good Catch said: "We are really pleased to have opened a new store in Crosby village, and being from the area ourselves makes it all the more exciting.

"We have two award winning stores in Manchester, as well as Freshfield, and Liverpool."

The business prides itself on cooking fresh produce on the premises.
